Strawberry Blonde

Category: Gen

Words: 2k

I love everybody because I love you

The tree sways in the wind, the fields of sunflowers rolling across the hills. Her strawberry blonde hair glistened, as her pink eyes caught the sun from above.

Her face meets mine.

"The amount of love my heart holds for you can fill the sea, only if you had eyes for me, and not for her."

I love it when you look my way
Look at you, strawberry blond
"But only if you knew the eyes I did have for you, and her. My heart can fit many, and you, my love have found a place."

Keep Your Friends Far, And Your Enemies Farther

> Time is slipping through Dirk's fingers, and he can't figure out why people are choosing Hal over him – the original. Maybe it's because Dirk can't stop making a mess of everything in his path, or maybe it's because Dirk is the only one who can see through Hal's bullshit. It's anyone's guess, really.

> Hal calls it brain surgery, when you work on him. And as much as you try to remind him he's just a robot, he refuses to let you turn him off while you tinker around in there. You think he's worried you'll shut him off forever.

~~> You spend too much time thinking about what it would be like if you didn't have him around to argue about how you won't.~~
